School contract

Primrose Primary School, parent contract.

By signing, you agree to the school day, the fees for the term, and the notice period of one full half term if your child leaves.

Fees are due before the first day of term. Late payment is discussed with the office, not with the class teacher.

You also agree that your child will follow the school and field rules, and that you will read announcements in the parents portal.